How to complete the consent

- 1. Who signs. The parent who is not travelling signs. If the child travels without both parents (e.g. with grandparents or on a school trip), both parents sign, each on a separate form.
- 2. Be specific. Enter exact dates, destination and transit countries, and document numbers. The more specific the consent, the fewer questions at the border.
- 3. Notary. Polish law does not require a notarised consent, but notarial certification of the signature makes it more credible and is required by some countries and airlines. The notary adds the certification clause below the signature.
- 4. Check requirements. Before travelling, check the requirements of the destination country and the airline. Carry the original and a copy.
- 5. If consent is refused. If the other parent refuses, the travelling parent can apply to the Polish family court to decide the matter (Art. 97 § 2 of the Family and Guardianship Code).
